

HOGAN MARREN
BABBO & ROSE, LTD

John J. Tatooles

John J. Tatooles focuses his practice on advising and assisting clients in health care, real estate and general corporate and transactional matters.

Mr. Tatooles has worked on the integration of multiple physician practices, the purchase and sale of medical facilities and physician practices, and hospital-physician affiliations. He also works extensively on complex commercial and residential real estate transactions. His transactional work includes matters related to leases, general corporate matters related to tax and business planning and sales and acquisitions of businesses. In addition, his practice includes transactional work related to employment agreements and other ownership agreements, including shareholder and operating agreements, and related regulatory matters.

Mr. Tatooles has been affiliated with Hogan Marren Babbo & Rose, Ltd. since 1992 and has worked on a broad variety of matters for the firm. He considers himself a counselor and advisor who endeavors to provide clients with practical advice that takes into account business considerations as a primary reference point.
